$20,000,000 For Monument

ITALY'S MAGNIFICENT TRIBUTE TO A DEAD KING.

DEDICATION YESTERDAY

Royalty Out in Force at the Ceremony—Most Colossal Structure of the Kind in the World—Status 40 Feet.

Rome, June 4.—Nearly a million people witnessed the dedication today of a magnificent monument to King Victor Emmanuel II. Interest was added to the occasion by the celebration of the granting of the constitution by King Charles Albert in 1848, the anniversary by which United Italy is still ruled.

Queen Mother Present.

King Victor Emmanuel and Queen Helena, the queen mother, Margherita, who appeared for the first time in an official function since the death of King Humbert, Dower Queen Maria Pia of Portugal, the Duchess of Aosta, the Duke and Duchess of Genoa, the Duke of the Abruzzi and other members of the royal house were present.

8,000 Mayors in Attendance.

Not only the people, but thousands from the provinces joined in making the event one of national importance. The mayors of various towns and cities throughout the kingdom were in attendance, numbering eight thousand.

Priest Arouses Enthusiasm.

One of the incidents of the day was the steps for a priest who climbed the steps of the monument. Senators and deputies surrounded him with as much enthusiasm as the populace. Opening his gown, the priest showed a color sash, the emblem of the mayor of Rome, and said: "I am Canon Paolucci, mayor of Rome. I took the oath of loyalty to the king and the constitution, and I thought it my duty to pay a tribute of homage to the father of our country."

A Colossal Structure.

The monument is the most colossal structure of the kind in the world. It occupies the left section of the Capitoline Hill and is the largest the country ever produced.

Stands Forty Feet High.

The statue is forty feet high and weighs fifty tons. It was cast in 14 pieces, which occupied two and one-half years. When the work was finished a banquet was served in the body of the house for 20 people.
